Content

The subject "international communication" was started at the beginning of school year 2012/13 as a pilot project in the class with the profile "Europe" at our commercial college .

Intended were video conferences with our twin school in Waalwijk. The students were expected to work in international teams to

- build up a virtual company and give it a name,
- register their members and executives,
- create and describe a product with a product flyer and short account costing,
- make surveys in the individual schools and
- visualize their results.

Therefore the timetables of both schools were coordinated and synchronized with each other.
